

Dentist for a Day

Saptorini

Rahma Muthia (Mui Guma)

Ovi visits the dentist for the first time.
Dentists are not scary!

Ovi gets a present.
Oh, how fun!

Ovi can also be a dentist.
Just for one day!
Who will be the patient?

Mom is still busy.
Ovi looks for another patient.

Where are Grandma's teeth?
Oh, Grandma's dentures are being washed.

Aha!

Oh no, Big Sister wakes up.
She shouts at Ovi, very annoyed.
Ovi quickly runs away!

Who is coming?

It is Ruli.

Ovi is going to check Ruli's teeth.

Ruli does not want to.
She says goodbye instead.

How about Milki?

Ovi fails again.
She has to find another patient.

Ovi persuades Dad.
Dad agrees.
It's time for action!

You must thoroughly check
the teeth.
Nothing should be missed.

Eeek!

Dad has to brush his teeth.

Now, Dad's teeth are clean.
Ovi did it!

The Litara Foundation was established in 2014. It aims to improve the literacy skills of Indonesian children. The founders and activists of Litara consist of teachers, writers, illustrators, editors, translators, academics, practitioners, and education consultants. Litara's work includes developing and publishing quality books, training and assisting teachers and communities for literacy activities in schools and Community Reading Gardens, creating literacy and numeracy modules for teachers, training writers and illustrators, donating books, conducting research on children's literacy, and building partnerships or strategic collaborations.

KIBA (Kelas Ilustrasi dan Desain Buku Anak) under the DKV Study Program of FSRD ITB is a course aimed at facilitating knowledge, research, workshops, and collaborations to improve the quality of illustrations in children's books, particularly in Indonesia.
