Oh, it's so quiet!
Where are my friends?

There's Kana and Belu!
Where are they going?
I want to go!

The library!

I've never been here before.

What could be inside?

Wow!

There are so many books!

What room is this?

There are lots of colorful books.

I want to read a book about dragons.

Oh!
This book is so thick.
What could be inside?

Wow!

Oh!

There's a book about soccer!

Oh no, I was wrong!
It's a book about spiders.

Hey!
What are they doing over there?

How fun!
Everyone can play quietly.

Who's that?

What book is he reading?

Ha ha!
Mr. Crocodile keeps reading.

I want to read that book too.

The library is amazing!
I want to come here again.

The Litara Foundation was established in 2014. It aims to improve the literacy skills of Indonesian children. The founders and activists of Litara consist of teachers, writers, illustrators, editors, translators, academics, practitioners, and education consultants. Litara's work includes developing and publishing quality books, training and assisting teachers and communities for literacy activities in schools and Community Reading Gardens, creating literacy and numeracy modules for teachers, training writers and illustrators, donating books, conducting research on children's literacy, and building partnerships or strategic collaborations.

KIBA (Kelas Ilustrasi dan Desain Buku Anak) under the DKV Study Program of FSRD ITB is a course aimed at facilitating knowledge, research, workshops, and collaborations to improve the quality of illustrations in children's books, particularly in Indonesia.
